I really want to thank you for everything you do to help kids. I just had a piano recital and I was really nervous. I made a couple mistakes. I felt really bad. Then, I remembered that I was special and I did my very best. You are the perfect role model for everyone, including adults.

Four weeks ago my mom and dad got in a fight. The cops took my dad. My mom went to the hospital. I was in charge of my little siblings and we don't live with our parents any more. I thought they fought because of me and I thought I wasn't special. But you showed me that I AM SPECIAL no matter what. Thank you!
